 Evidence

At its most basic, accountability ensures that those in power are held publicly responsible for their decisions

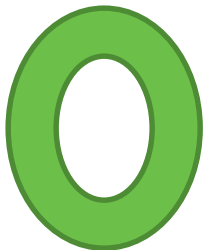

Directions of accountability

- Horizontal accountability

- Vertical accountability

- Diagonal accountability

Why Focus on Social Accountability?

- Accountability is an essential element to ensuring aid effectiveness
- Budget/expenditure tracking & report card verify if products are in the facilities and being used well.
- This facility/community level data can better inform national and global efforts

Social Accountability:
What are the Lessons for Improving
FP/RH Programs?

Evidence Review of SAcc in FP/RH programs

- Builds on a history of community involvement
- Limited literature specific to FP/RH (16 case studies)
- Evidence on effectiveness and impact has yet to be adequately demonstrated

Promising evidence on effectiveness and impact of FP/RH SAcc intervention—Tanzania

- By tracking policy implementation, staffing patterns at 24 intervention facilities increased by 33% after 4 months*

*Health Policy Initiative-Task Order I (HPI). 2010. "Promoting Accountability for Safe Motherhood: The White Ribbon Alliance's Social Watch Approach," Health Policy Initiative Task Order 1.

Experts Consensus Points

- SAcc interventions are more than just applying tools, they are complex political processes
- Social accountability models must be adapted to reflect FP/RH issues
- More realistic expectations are needed on the outcomes SAcc interventions can achieve within limited timeframes
- There is a need to identify and measure minimum conditions required for successful SAcc interventions

What is Unique about SAcc for FP/RH?

- Much Potential
 - Applies to specific FP/RH issues
 - Operationalize rights based approaches
- Reservations
 - Balancing private and public
 - Role of incentives for SAcc

Role of A&A Working Group

- There is great potential to use existing SAcc work to monitor supply and prevent stock-outs.
- How can we harness A&A WG membership existing SAcc expertise to support the work of the Coalition?

Thank You
